

Dr. ROSEMARY FUMPA-MAKANO
Brief Bio

Dag Hammarskjöld Institute for Peace & Conflict Studies
CBU Lusaka Campus, ZAMBIA.

Mobile: + (260)-97-979-6565
Email: rose.makano@gmail.com

BRIEF PROFILE

Dr. Rose Fumpa-Makano is a Public Policy Specialist with a passion for socially inclusive development. She is an ardent advocate for gender equality, peace keeping, and pro-poor strategies and policies.

Dr Fumpa holds a PhD in Political Science, MA in Public Policy Administration from the University of Missouri-St. Louis, USA; and a BSc. in Agroforestry from University of Wales in UK. She is currently at the Copperbelt University, under the Dag Hammarskjöld Institute for Peace and Conflict Studies. Prior to this she taught in the USA at the University of Missouri-St. Louis. Later she worked as a Consultant, and served numerous clients from the corporate world, embassies, public service, and nongovernmental and civil society organisations. In the early years of her career she worked for the Zambian government under the Ministry of Environment and Natural Resources.

Dr. Fumpa is an accomplished Manager with extensive experience in strategic planning; policy analysis, research; project management, monitoring and evaluation; budgeting; grant writing; human resource development and natural resource management. Her fields of expertise include: Political Science, Public Administration, Agroforestry, Forestry, and Horticulture / Floriculture.